   Respondent No.2 to 4 Daughters of Sri Trilok Chand
   All residents of 52-A, E.C. Road, Dehradun. ….. Respondents

Sri H.M. Bhatia learned counsel for the appellant.
Sri Nand Prasad learned counsel for the respondents.

Dated:- 19-04-2006

Hon'ble B.S. Verma, J.

Heard Sri Hari Mohan Bhatia learned counsel for the appellant and Sri Nand Prasad learned counsel for the respondents.

The present appeal has been filed by the appellant against the Judgment and decree dated 14-4-1978 passed by the District Judge, Dehradun in Land Acquisition Case No. 99 of 1972.

Aggrieved by the reference court's order dated 14-4-1978. The State has also filed the appeal before the Hon'ble Allahabad High Court, which was decided, on 20-1-1988. The order of the reference court had merged in the order of the appellate court's order dated 20-1-1988. The order was passed in same reference No. 99 of 1972 against the same parties and Trilok Chand and others were party to the appeal as respondents. Appeal is disposed of in terms of the order dated 20-1-1988 passed by the Allahabad High Court in Appeal No. 333 of 1978.

With the said observation the appeal is disposed of finally. The appellant is entitled to compensation as per judgment of Allahabad High Court's order dated 20.1.1998.
